The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Peebles.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Peebles, beg Leave to expreſs our higheſt Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to preſent our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty upon your happy Eſcape from ſo great Danger.

Attached to your Majeſty by every Sentiment that can moſt endear a Sovereign to his People, who has long been held to be the Father of his People in the juſt and fulleſt Senſe of the Word, we beg Leave to acknowledge with the higheſt Gratitude the merciful Interpoſition of Providence which has been manifeſted upon this Occaſion; and fervently to pray that the Almighty may long continue to protect and continue a Life ſo truly valuable to all your Majeſty's Subjects.

[Tranſmitted by Leutenant-Colonel Montgomery, Repreſentative of the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, offer to your Majeſty our humble and hearty Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the Hand of an Aſſaſſin. Firmly attached to your ſacred Perſon and to our valuable Conſtitution, and fully ſenſible of the Benefits we enjoy under a juſt and equitable Adminiſtration of the Laws, we heard of the late horrid Attempt with the utmoſt Horror and Deteſtation, and do moſt devoutly pray that the Almighty will long preſerve your Majeſty's Life, and continue to us and the Reſt of your Subjects the ineſtimable Advantages they now poſſeſs under your Majeſty's Government, and the unrivalled Conſtitution of our Country, the Excellence of which, and the eminent Virtues of your Majeſty, have ſecured us from that Anarchy and Confuſion that have moſt unfortunately diſunited and diſtreſſed the neighbouring States.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave, with Profeſſions of the moſt profound Reſpect, to approach the Throne with our Addreſs of ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late atrocious Attack on your ſacred Life.

The more we conſider it in its Nature as a moſt daring Inſult on your Royal Dignity and a malevolent Diſpoſition towards the Conſtitution of theſe Realms, which are diſtinguiſhed above all Nations for the Happineſs and Security we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, the more complex, aggravated, and heinous it appears to our View, conſequently we feel ourſelves at a Loſs for Words to expreſs with ſufficient Energy our Abhorrence and Indignation towards the miſerable Author and Perpetrator of ſo diabolical a Crime.

Truly ſenſible, as well of the great Importance of the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Life to the Welfare of this Empire and the Security of our glorious Conſtitution, as of the great Benefits which all your Subjects derive under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government, with anxious Hearts therefore we petition Heaven that a Life thus providentially protected, a Life ſo important to our Welfare, may be very long preſerved, and we pray fervently that your Majeſty's Subjects may be ever loyal and grateful, and ever emulous of gaining your Royal Favour and Protection, and that your Majeſty may long live to continue to your People theſe Bleſſings, which, from your paternal Care and Attention they have hitherto conſtantly enjoyed.

[Tranſmitted by Mr. Roberts, Town Clerk.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, aſſembled in the Court Room of the Head Burgh of the ſaid County, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne to expreſs our utmoſt Horror and Indignation at the late daring, wicked, and traitorous Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Life ſo deſervedly dear to every Member of the Empire, and upon which the Security and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms ſo eminently depend; and at the ſame Time to offer our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty and the Kingdom at large on your Majeſty's moſt providential Eſcape from ſuch imminent Danger: And we do moſt fervently implore that the ſame Divine Superintending Providence which has already moſt conſpicuouſly preſerved your Majeſty's Life, will, in its Goodneſs ſtill watch over and protect your ſacred Perſon, and we moſt devoutly pray that your Majeſty may long continue to live and reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free, loyal, grateful, and united People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of the Eaſt Riding in the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on the late providential Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from the wicked Attempts of Treaſon. Impreſſed with the fulleſt Conviction of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life, we fail not to pray that God will be pleaſed long to continue ſo great a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Archidiaconal Seal this Tenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

[Tranſmitted by Mr. Brook, Regiſter of the Archdeaconry.]

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Carliſle, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your Majeſty's Life has recently been expoſed.

We fully participate in thoſe Feelings which this awful Event muſt have excited in the Breaſt of every Engliſhman; and whilſt we acknowledge with devout Gratitude the merciful Interpoſition of the Divine Being ſo ſignally manifeſted in your Majeſty's Preſervation, we ſhall never ceaſe to addreſs to the Almighty our earneſt Supplications that He would vouchſafe to your Majeſty the Continuance of His Protection from ſecret Conſpiracy and open Violence, and that theſe Realms may long be bleſſed with the Government of a Sovereign endeared to his Subjects not leſs by the Exerciſe of every private Virtue than by an invariable Attention to the public Good.

[Tranſmitted by the Biſhop of Carliſle.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies, Council, and Community of the Royal Burgh of Elgin, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and with the profoundeſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection, to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on Account of your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the imminent Danger to which your ſacred Perſon has lately been expoſed. It is an Occaſion which not only calls forth our Congratulations to your Majeſty, but demands our moſt devout Thanks to the Almighty for the Mercy vouchſafed to us, your People, by the Preſervation of your Majeſty from the horrid and atrocious Attempt of the Aſſaſſin; and we fervently pray that the ſame good Providence which hath ſhielded your Majeſty in this Danger may ſtill preſerve a Life ſo important to the Conſtitution, and invaluable to your Subjects, and may long continue to them the ineſtimable Bleſſing of your mild and paternal Government.

Given at our Council-Houſe this Third Day of June One thouſand eight hundred.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Conſtables, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead, beg Permiſſion to approach your Royal Perſon, and ſolicit your Majeſty's Acceptance of our unfeigned and warmeſt Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from a deſperate Attempt againſt your invaluable Life. At the ſame Time that we expreſs our Abhorrence of ſo baſe and wicked a Deſign, we cannot but acknowledge, with every Sentiment of Gratitude, the Divine Interpoſition which averted a Blow that might have proved ſo highly Calamitous to your whole Empire. May the ſame Almighty Power which has hitherto vouchſafed to protect your Majeſty continue to do ſo, and enable you, for a long Succeſſion of Years, to reign, as you ever have done, in the Hearts and Affections of a grateful, loyal, and happy People.

Murdoch Mackenzie and Edward May,

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Moſt Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Maſons of England, according to the Old Inſtitutions, under the Grand Maſterſhip of the Moſt Noble Prince John Duke of Atholl.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Grand Officers, with the Maſters and Wardens of Warranted Lodges of Free and Accepted Maſons, in Grand Lodge aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt of a daring Aſſaſſin.

We, in common with our Fellow Citizens, know how to eſtimate the Value of a Life, diſtinguiſhed no leſs by private Virtue than by an uniform Concern for the Welfare of your People; and we join with them in Gratitude to the Supreme Being for its Preſervation. But we have an additional Motive for expreſſing our Joy: honorably exempt from that Suſpicion which has attached to Societies in foreign Countries conſtituted with Forms ſimilar to our own, we do not forget, that amidſt the Reſtraints which the Vigilance of your Government has found neceſſary to impoſe, we are permitted to hold our regular Aſſemblies.

We aſſure your Majeſty that no Claſs of your Subjects entertains a more ſincere Attachment to your Perſon and to the Conſtitution, or will ſhew greater Zeal in their Support.

May the Life ſo juſtly dear to us be long preſerved; and may the Great Architect of the Univerſe continue to protect it from the Machinations both of public and private Enemies.

Signed, by Order of the Grand Lodge in London, the Twenty-fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred, and in the Year of Maſonry Five thouſand eight hundred.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Society of Solicitors at Law, Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne to expreſs our Horror and Deteſtation at the late daring and atrocious Attempt on your ſacred Perſon, ſo juſtly dear to every good Subject from your many diſtinguiſhed and amiable Qualities public and private, and your fatherly Attention to the Country at large.

We unite with our fellow Subjects in expreſſing our Gratitude and humble Acknowledgments to the Providence of the Almighty in preſerving your Majeſty, and pray to God you may be long preſerved a Bleſſing and Comfort to all your Subjects.

St. James's, June 25, 1800.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Saliſbury, deeply impreſſed with indignant Horror, at the late daring Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon, eagerly preſs forward to offer our moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Preſervation by the merciful Care of Divine Providence from the alarming Danger to which your precious Life has been expoſed.

When Treaſon, unawed by the Force of Loyalty, which it muſt know and feel to be the characteriſtic Boaſt of the great Body of your Majeſty's Subjects, ventures, once more, to ſtart out from its dark Receſſes, and with unexampled Inſolence, to proceed to a public Manifeſtation of its deteſtable Deſigns, it becomes highly neceſſary that all the Strength of the State, all the Authority of Law, and all the Weight of Individuals in every Station and of every Profeſſion, ſhould unite to prevent the Repetition of its dangerous Machinations.

Thoſe of our Profeſſion, Miniſters of Holy Religion, are not only under peculiar Obligations to exert their beſt Endeavours on ſo intereſting an Occaſion, but have peculiar Opportunities of exerting them to good Purpoſe.

Permit us, therefore, moſt humbly to convey to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Aſſurances, that it ſhall be our conſtant Study to guard the Minds of our Congregations againſt the Deluſions employed by the turbulent and profligate Enemies of good Government and ſound Religion to cheat them out of their Happineſs, and we truſt, that by training them up to the Fear of God, we ſhall impreſs their Minds with the moſt powerful Motives to honour the King.

To the conſcientious and diligent Diſcharge of the Duties of our ſacred Function ſo well calculated to produce the moſt important national Advantages, we ſhall never forget to add our earneſt and devout Supplications to that Great Being who governs all Things in Heaven and Earth, that He would vouchſafe the Continuance of His Protection to your Majeſty from ſecret Conſpiracy and open Violence; that He would preſerve you long endeared to your Subjects, not leſs by the Exerciſe of every private Virtue than by an invariable Attention to the public Good; and that there never may be wanting a Succeſſion of Sovereigns of your illuſtrious Family, who, emulous of your bright Example, may be the happy Inſtruments of Heaven in ſecuring to our lateſt Poſterity the invaluable Bleſſings completely enjoyed by us during your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign under the beneficial Influence of our preſent Conſtitution in Church and State.

[Preſented by the Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, Archdeacons, and the Reſt of the Reverend Clergy within the Dioceſe of Cheſter, humbly beg Leave to offer our ſincere and zealous Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the atrocious and impious Attempt of an Aſſaſſin on your ſacred Life.

Impreſſed with Veneration for the Wiſdom and paternal Solicitude which your Majeſty has ſo eminently manifeſted in the Government of theſe Kingdoms during a Succeſſion of ſo many Years, and contemplating the diſtinguiſhed Happineſs we enjoy of the brighteſt Example in the higheſt Station, our Minds recoil with Horror and Aſtoniſhment at a Deſign which threatened ſacrilegiouſly to deſtroy the Source, whence, under God, we derive ſuch ineſtimable Bleſſings, and to plunge this Nation into the deepeſt Diſtreſs; we adore and bleſs the Supreme Governor of the Univerſe for this freſh Inſtance of Mercy in the Preſervation of a Life not only of incalculable Importance to theſe Kingdoms, but at this awful Criſis to the deareſt Intereſts of all Europe.

To that deep Senſe of religious Duty, and that ſcrupulous Attention to moral Obligations which have ever characteriſed your Majeſty, we attribute in a principal Degree the firm, dignified, and magnanimous Oppoſition which Great Britain maintains againſt the Enemies of the Chriſtian Faith, and the avowed Advocates of Anarchy and Inſubordination. A Conduct at once ſo pious and heroic cannot but command univerſal Reſpect and Admiration; but it is peculiarly calculated to animate the Gratitude and call forth the warmeſt Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's Clergymen devoted to the Study, and convinced of the Importance of Religion, the Expoſitors of our Holy Faith, the authoriſed Teachers of pure Morals and due Subordination throughout your Majeſty's Dominions.

To our future Conduct in the Diſcharge of our momentous Offices we humbly preſume to direct your Majeſty's Attention in Proof of the Sincerity of theſe Expreſſions; it ſhall be our zealous Endeavour both by Precept and Example, to inculcate into the Minds of thoſe committed to our ſpiritual Care, ſound Religion and pure Morality, by which we truſt we may beſt prove our Duty to God and our Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

In Addition to ſuch Aſſurances of Reſpect and Attachment called forth by the late Outrage on your ſacred Life, we have only to offer our fervent Prayers to that Almighty Power, "by whom Kings rule and Princes adminiſter Juſtice," that He will be graciouſly pleaſed to watch over and prolong your Majeſty's Days ſo eſſential to the Welfare and Stability of theſe Kingdoms, and that, after many future Years of Happineſs and Glory on this Earth, He will vouchſafe to your Majeſty a Crown of eternal Glory in Heaven.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Maſter, Wardens, and Court of Aſſiſtants of the Society of Apothecaries of your City of London, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence in fruſtrating the Attempt of an atrocious Aſſaſſin on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon; and we moſt devoutly offer up our Prayers to the Throne of Grace that your Majeſty may long, very long continue to be the Guardian of the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of a free, grateful, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Hall, in Blackfriars, by Order of the Court of Aſſiſtants.

Rob. Cooke, Clerk.

[Preſented by the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of North Berwick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Burgh of North Berwick, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, and to expreſs our Joy for your providential Eſcape from the late daring and atrocious Attempt made upon your ſacred Perſon; at the ſame Time we aſſure your Majeſty that we are willing with our Lives and Fortunes to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We admire that calm Magnanimity of Mind diſplayed by your Majeſty in the Hour of Danger, the Diſplay of which ſaved the Lives of many of your loyal Subjects.

Whilſt we reflect upon the many and invaluable Privileges, which, as a People, we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and which have been tranſmitted unimpaired through a Line of illuſtrious Anceſtors, we firmly rely on your Majeſty for the Preſervation and Maintenance of theſe Bleſſings, and we would beſeech the Almighty Ruler among the Nations to continue and preſerve a Life to your People ſo juſtly dear, ſo that the Bleſſings which we now enjoy may continue to bleſs our Children's Children.

Signed in Name and by Authority of the Council, this Fourteenth Day of June One thouſand eight hundred.

Thos. Miller, Chief Magiſtrate.

[Preſented by Mr. Secretary Dundas.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, and Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne to expreſs the Emotions of Horror and Indignation with which we have been filled by the atrocious and diabolical Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon by the Hand of a baſe Aſſaſſin, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the wonderful Interpoſition of Divine Providence which has preſerved your Majeſty's moſt precious Life from ſo imminent a Danger.

It is our earneſt Prayer that the ſame Almighty Arm may long continue to guard the Life of a Sovereign ſo juſtly dear to a loyal and affectionate People, and under whoſe mild and auſpicious Government our Laws, Liberties, and invaluable Conſtitution, civil and religious, have been ſo happily preſerved.

Signed in our Name and at our Requeſt by Selkirk, Preſes.

Kirkcudbright, May 30, 1800.

Captain William Maxwell, jun. of Cardoneſs, William Douglas, Eſq; of Caſtle Douglas, Deputy-Lieutenant, Samuel Douglas, Eſq; of Crae, and other Gentlemen of the Shire and Stewartry.*]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The dutiful Addreſs of the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept our moſt humble but heartfelt Gratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from a moſt horrid and atrocious Attempt, aimed immediately at your Royal Perſon, but ultimately, as we are perſuaded, and principally at the Subverſion of our happy Conſtitution, to which your Majeſty's Firmneſs, your irreproachable and exemplary Conduct, and the univerſally acknowledged Mildneſs and Equity of your Majeſty's Government has given moſt eſſential Support.

Impreſſed with a due Senſe of the many Bleſſings which this Country beyond many others has long been permitted to enjoy, we offer up our fervent Prayers in common with thoſe of the Nation, that your Majeſty, under the Divine Protection, may for many Years continue to reign over a loyal People, unaſſailed by open Violence, and ſecure from the latent Intrigues of any ſecret Enemies.

The Corporation Seal was hereto affixed by Order, Fifth of June One thouſand eight hundred. Charles Nalſon Cole, Regiſter.

[Preſented by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Governor, Sir Charles Morgan, Colonel Morgan, and Mr. W. Fellowes.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Faculty of Phyſicians and Surgeons in Glaſgow.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Faculty of Phyſicians and Surgeons in Glaſgow, cannot refrain from approaching your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late deſperate and diabolical Attempt which has been made upon your Majeſty's auguſt and ſacred Perſon.

We cannot ſufficiently deſcribe the Horror and Indignation with which we learned that any Perſon could be ſo atrocious and depraved as to lift his Arm againſt a Life ſo precious, nor our Gratitude to that Providence whoſe merciful Interpoſition in the Protection of your Majeſty has preſerved this Country from the grievous Calamity with which it was threatened; and we earneſtly pray that the ſame Providence may ſtill continue to watch over and preſerve your Majeſty from every Danger, and may grant to us long to enjoy thoſe numberleſs Bleſſings which we derive from your mild and paternal Government.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governors, Court of Aſſiſtants, and Members compoſing the Royal Society of Muſicians, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your late providential Eſcape from the wicked and traitorous Attempt made on your Majeſty's Life by the Hands of an Aſſaſſin.

We cannot, without Horror and Indignation, reflect upon this truly diabolical Attempt againſt our Sovereign, whom the Mildneſs and Benignity of his Government have ſo juſtly endeared to all his Subjects, and whoſe numerous public and private Virtues render him the Object of univerſal Admiration, and a bright Pattern for the Imitation of every one who has the Happineſs to live under his Dominion: we Bluſh for Mankind, and ſincerely lament that ſuch an Inſtance of monſtrous Depravity ſhould have happened in our Time, and that the Perpetrator ſhould be a Native of Britain. And we moſt devoutly and fervently pray to Almighty God that the ſame kind and over-ruling Providence which has upon this Occaſion ſo remarkably preſerved your Majeſty, and turned aſide the meditated Blow, may ſtill continue to protect and watch over you, and that your Majeſty may long live and reign the Ornament of the Throne, the Guardian of conſtitutional Liberty, and the Father and Friend of a grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

THE Attempt at Regicide ſhocks us with Horror:—and againſt a King ſo excellent, ſo pure, makes the Land to tremble. We dare not trace it to true uncorrupted Britiſh Souls. A ruffian Crew, deſtitute of all Principle and all ſound Policy, could be the only Abettors of ſo direful and diſgraceful an Attempt. Under ſuch Impreſſions we, the Maſters, Wardens, and Brethren of the different Maſon Lodges in the Town and Neighbourhood of Ayr, who live within the Compaſs and the Square, and can only boaſt that our Ignorance of illuminating Principles keeps us equally Strangers to every malicious Deſign againſt the Happineſs and Harmony of others, find it our own greateſt Happineſs that an ever watchful Providence over that unexampled Goodneſs which diſtinguiſhes your Majeſty's happy Reign, has warded the aimed Blow from your ſacred Perſon, and ſaved your loyal and affectionate People from the deepeſt Diſtreſs.

May that ſame kind Providence continue to avert every diabolical Machination that the evil-minded or deſigning may aim at your ſacred Perſon, Family, or Government, and enable your Majeſty, before cloſing a Life ſo pious and exemplary, to eſtabliſh, and long to enjoy, the Bleſſings of a ſolid and laſting Peace to your own happy Dominions, and thereby to the whole Globe; and that your Majeſty, and every Member of your illuſtrious Family, may be enrolled where Crowns of immortal Happineſs await thoſe unceaſing Endeavours for the Good of Mankind, which have been ſo eminently the Character of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Endeared as your Majeſty is to us by your Character, by your public and private Virtues, by the Events of the Times, and by the dark and flagitious Attempts of Malignity and Treaſon, we beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty the ſincere and genuine Sentiments of our Loyalty and Veneration, together with the Aſſurance of our humble Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majeſty's moſt providential Deliverance, and our fervent Prayers that His Divine Protection will continue to defend and guard Virtues ſo conſpicuous and beneficent, and the Life of a Monarch ſo beloved and revered.

The late Attempt againſt your precious Life hath filled our Minds with Horror and Indignation.

We at the ſame Time declare our Gratitude to the Supreme Being by whoſe Interpoſition that moſt atrocious and wicked Deſign was fruſtrated, and are confident that the ſame Power will continue to preſerve the Life of a Monarch ſo juſtly dear to his People. John Montgomery, Sheriff.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, K.B. Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on board the Minotaur, off Genoa, May 21, 1800.

SIR,

I Have the Honor of reporting to you, for the Information of their Lordſhips, that, by private Intelligence from Genoa, I underſtood the French had reſolved on boarding our Flotilla in any future Attempt to bombard the Town, and Yeſterday about Twelve o'Clock a very large Galley, a Cutter, Three Armed Settees, and ſeveral Gun Boats appeared in Array off the Molehead, and in the Courſe of the Afternoon exchanged diſtant Shot with ſome of the Ships as they paſſed them. At Sunſet they took a Poſition under the Guns of the Moles and the City Baſtions, which were covered with Men, manifeſting a determined Reſiſtance; I nevertheleſs arranged every Thing for a Fourth Bombardment, as formerly, under the Direction of Captain Philip Beaver, of the Aurora, who left the Minotaur at Nine P. M. attended by the Gun and Mortar Veſſels and the Armed Boats of the Ships. About One o'Clock, being arrived at a proper Diſtance for commencing his Fire, a briſk Cannonade was opened upon the Town, which was returned from various Points; and Captain Beaver having diſcovered by the Flaſhes of ſome Guns that they were directed from ſomething nearly level with the Water, judiciouſly concluded that they proceeded from ſome of the Enemy's Armed Veſſels; calling a Detachment of the Ship's Boats to his Aſſiſtance, he made directly to the Spot, and in a moſt gallant and ſpirited Manner, under a ſmart Fire of Cannon and Muſketry from the Moles and Enemy's Armed Veſſels, attacked, boarded, carried, and brought off their largeſt Galley La Prima of Fifty Oars and Two Hundred and Fifty-ſeven Men, armed, beſides Muſkets, Piſtols, Cutlaſſes, &c. with Two Braſs Guns of Thirty-ſix Pounds, having about Thirty Braſs Swivels in her Hold, and commanded by Captain Patrizio Galleano. The Bombardment ſuffered no material Interruption, but was continued till Daylight this Morning, when the Prima was ſafely brought off; her extreme Length is One Hundred and Fifty-nine Feet, and her Breadth Twenty-three Feet Six Inches.

On our Part Four Seamen only have been wounded; One belonging to this Ship, in the Boat with Captain Beaver; One belonging to the Pallas; and the other Two to the Haerlem. The Enemy's Loſs is not exactly known, but One Man was found dead on board, and Fifteen wounded.

The Satisfaction which I derive from conſidering the Zeal, Activity, and Gallantry with which this Service has been performed, is greatly augmented by the flattering Teſtimony borne by Captain Beaver to the good Conduct of the Officers and Seamen who acted with him on this Occaſion.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

A Letter, of which the incloſed is a Copy, received by me from Captain Oliver, of His Majeſty's Ship the Mermaid, will inform their Lordſhips how actively that Officer has been employed in the important Service of cutting off the Supplies deſtined for the Enemy's Troops in the City of Genoa.

MY LORD, Mermaid, Mahon, April 10, 1800.

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Lordſhip, that His Majeſty's Ship under my Command has taken and deſtroyed Nine Veſſels laden, moſtly for Genoa, with Wine and Corn, between the 2d and 6th Inſtant. Six of them were cut out by Two of our Boats under the Direction of Lieutenant Corbett; they were moored to a Fort within the ſmall Iſlands near Cape Croiſetts. I had ſeen them collecting all Day; and ſoon after Sunſet I went in with the Ship, under the Battery, within the Range of Grape Shot, and anchored with a Spring on the Cable, and after cannonading the Fort more than an Hour, I ſaw the Six Veſſels, which Mr. Corbett had moſt ably got under Weigh, coming out, when I followed them with the Ship. I am happy to ſay that we have had no Perſon hurt on this Service; and a Shot through our Cut-Water, which is of little Conſequence, is the only Damage we have received.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.
